

THIRD SUNDAY

Advent

As the earth brings forth its plants,
and a garden makes its growth spring up,
so will the Lord God make justice and praise spring up before all the nations.

Reasons to Rejoice

Saint Paul seems to be throwing out a handful of sayings that may sound overly optimistic, but are actually very practical. "Rejoice always? Who can do that?" It sounds absurd, but the next two lines give it context: If we pray constantly and thank God for all that happens to us, we have reason to rejoice. Whatever happens is the will of God for us. Even the bad things, things we don't like, can be allowed by God, so that God can bring good out of them. God allows sin because it leads to forgiveness, an experience of God's love for us. And God allows even death, because God can bring us to eternal life.

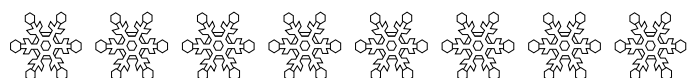

The next two sayings may be a little obscure. When Paul tells us not to quench the Spirit, he means we should be open to what the Holy Spirit moves us to do. "Prophetic utterances" refer to things that other people were inspired to proclaim. If we pray constantly (1 Thessalonians 5:17) we won't be so distracted by the things of this world that we cannot hear the promptings of the Holy Spirit in us. We won't be so critical of others that we miss what the Spirit is telling us through them. How do we know if something really is from the Spirit? The next phrase helps with that: Test everything. Retain what is good (1 Thessalonians 5:21). Use the scriptures, the teachings of the Church, and your conscience to decide whether the Spirit is moving you, or if advice you hear is worthwhile. And most of all trust God to help with all this because God wants us to be holy. God will make us holy if we only allow it. Then we will be ready for the coming of the Lord, whether through the sacraments, the celebration of Christmas, or God's final coming in glory. I'd say that's a reason to rejoice. BISHOP ROBERT BARRON'S LECTURE ON "CATHOLICISM"

This week we will conclude the Advent series of discussions. If you have not attended any of the sessions, you have one more opportunity to participate. This week the discussion will focus on the Mystery of God. When we try to name or define God, all of our words and concepts fall short. God is not just the biggest thing around. St Augustine said that if you can understand this being that you call "God", then surely it is not God.

We understand things of this world; God is not of this world. He is not an item. God is mystery. A mystery is a thing that shuts your mouth - something that makes you fall silent. God shuts your mouth. Theologian Karl Rahner wrote that God is the last thing we should say before falling silent.

Be part of this discussion: Tuesday in the Church Hall at 9:30 AM, or Wednesday in the Parish Center at 6:30 PM.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Parish Office will be closed on both December 25th and January 1st.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

Are You Looking to Start Back on Your Journey of Faith? Are you ready?

The road to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation is ahead if you are ready.

Do you wish to finish your Catholic Sacraments of Initiation?

Maybe you want to get on the road—to come to the Catholic Church—to be baptized and start on your journey of faith. Did you receive your First Communion and then get side tracked and never receive Confirmation? It is never too late to get back on the road and continue on your faith journey. It is never too late to receive your First Communion or Confirmation and to step right back into the last footsteps of your faith journey and begin again as an adult. This is an exciting process especially designed for adults who want to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and/or Confirmation called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Don't hesitate if you are ready. Just call the parish office at 424-3757 and speak with Marie Dancy, our Pastoral Associate. She will give you all the details and help you get started.

Refresher Training

It is time for all adults who work with minors on a regular basis in the Diocese of Manchester parishes, schools and camps to complete their refresher training. Anyone who completed their training prior to January 2015 is now due for updated training.

The Diocese of Manchester uses an abuse training site called "Safe Haven: It's Up to You". To access this training, go to <https://manchester.cmgconnect.org>. Click on "Start Curriculum". The steps you need to complete will be listed on the left hand side of your screen. You must proceed in the order in which they are listed. Once a section or step is completed, it will show as 'done'.

Note: There are 3 videos. Once you begin watching a video, you must watch it through to the end. Once a step is marked 'done', you may leave the training and log in to complete the remaining steps at another time.

Once you have completed all the assigned steps, you can access your completion certificate by returning to the training dashboard and clicking 'Download Certificate.'

How to Report Suspected Abuse

If you know or suspect abuse or neglect of a minor (a person under the age of 18), you must report it to the NH Division for Children, Youth and Families at 1-800-894-5533 or 603-271-6556. If you are an employee or volunteer in the Catholic Church in NH, in addition to reporting to DCYF, if you know or suspect sexual abuse of a minor by Church personnel you must also report it to: Local Law Enforcement and the Delegate for Ministerial Conduct if the abuse involves a minor at 669-3100.

Outreach Services for Victims and their Families...
